P.6. Part VI, Section B, Line 12c: Conflict of interest disclosure: The agency maintains a board policy that is provided to all new board members. All new members receive a board orientation to fully explain the roles and responsibilities of each member.

The board chair and co-executive directors work together to ensure compliance with the policy. The board chair makes periodic inquiries about potential conflicts of interest with respective board members.

P.6. Part VI, Section B, Line 15: The agency co-executive directors and board chair work together to secure non profit salary survey information from a variety of non profit sources, along with other sector trend and agency data, as available, to develop a salary range for executives, management and staff. This data, with the agency's salary history, form the basis for compensation arrangements.

P.6. Part VI, Section C, Line 19: The agency maintains all of its required organizational and financial filings in a timely manner. The agency does not make its internal financial statements available to the general public. The agency will provide a copy of its conflict of interest policy and other publicly required documents to those parties who make a request in writing, generally within 10 business of the receipt of the request.

P.6 Part VI, Section A, Line 11: 990 Review process: The external financial consultant reviews the completed 990 with the co-executive directors. The co-executive directors work with the board to address any issues raised by the 990 consultant. An electronic version of the 990 is made available to board members for their review and approval prior to filing with the IRS

P.12, Part IX, Line 5, Other Changes in Net Assets: ($2,116): In 2010, the agency reconciled its net assets section and determined that prior year end adjustments had not been entered into the general ledger. Those adjustments were entered in 2010 and net assets were reduced by $2,116 as of March 31, 2011,
